A HUMAN BAROMETER.

As a Pennsylvania Man Foretells the weather.

A gentleman who lives a few miles west of town, says the Windland (Pa.) barometer, is a barometer in himself. He can tell when the temperature will rise or fall almost to the hour. Often he has predicted north winds, rain, etc., when there were no visible signs to bear out his assertions. He does not prognosticate by his feelings, but by some strange markings on his left forearm.

These marks resemble the discharge of a Leyden jar as much as anything else. There is one mark about two inches long and a quarter of an inch wide, and from this project two other red lines. On the end of each of these is a blue spot. When the indications are for rain these two spots travel under the skin until they touch each other. When the probabilities are for wind or dry weather they separate until they are diametrically opposite. Physicians have examined the discolorations, and say that they are only some kind of pigment under the skin, and that they are similar in nature to birthmarks. They cannot explain the traveling proclivities of these fore-runners, however.

The gentleman says that his temperature has nothing to do with their movements. He may be warm on a wet day and they may not be affected, or vice versa.

The Engine of Civilization.

Rural Editor—Have you finished that editorial on the recent mistakes of the young German emperor?

Assistant—Yes, just got through.

"Did you write any article on the Italian question?"

"Yes, got up a column of good advice to the king of Italy."

"Glad to hear it. We'll send him a copy. What else did you write?"

"A long editorial on national finances."

"Good! That will fill the page. Now let's go out and see if we can borrow a dollar."—N. Y. Weekly.

An Egocent.

A New York club man, not above the average in brains, was visiting a Detroit girl recently, and when he went away she was asking one of her friends about him.

"I liked him well enough," she said, "but he talked horse too much. Did you notice that?"

"Well, no," was the hesitating reply, "not exactly. He talked donkey to me mostly."

"I don't quite understand," she said, puzzled somewhat.

"Why, he talked about himself."—Detroit Free Press.

Not to Be Trusted.

Wife—Let me send for Dr. Killman. You said some one recommended him highly.

Sick Husband—I don't want him, I fear. The man who recommended him is an undertaker.—Jury.

Just in His Line.

"Say, Rastus, what's this I hear about your wantin' t' be nominated for the legislature. What yer goin' t' do ef ye get thru?"

"Gif pointed on one dem w'te-washin' emitties."—Puck.

The Inference Didn't Count.

Pretty Girl (to salesman)—I want to buy a hammock strong enough to hold up three.

Salesman—Sorry, miss, but our hammocks will only hold up two.

Pretty Girl (unhesitatingly)—Well, no matter, I'll take one.—Boston Herald.

Face Bleach.

MRS GRAHAM'S

Cucumber
and
Elder Flower
Cream

It is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautiful. It creates a soft, smooth, clear velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles, and blackheads, will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than does soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and those prevent the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of the skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a most youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00, at all druggists and hair-dressers, or at Mrs. Gervase Graham's establishment, 102 Post Street, San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all blemishes of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

SAMPLE BOTTLE mailed free to any lady on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing. Lady Agents wanted.
